

Transfer of .se domain name to another juridical or physical person.

In order for a domain name to be transferred to another juridical or physical person, the current (transferring) registrant must fill in this form. Return the form to .SE Direkt.

The transferring registrant hereby approves that the domain name below is transferred to the juridical or physical person indicated below.

1) The transfer concerns the following domain name:

Domain name:

2) The domain name is transferred from (the transferring registrant):

Company name (if company) or first and family name (if private person)
Registration number (if company) or personal identity number (if private person)
E-mail address:
Phone/Mobile:

3) The domain name is transferred (the receiving registrant):

Company name (if company) or first and family name (if private person)
Registration number (if a company) or personal identity number (if private person)

If the transferring registrant is a juridical person, this form must be signed by an authorised signatory to be valid.

Date

Signature of the transferring registrant (authorised signature in case of a company/organization)

Clarification of signature

(Where applicable, also state the position held, such as authorized signatory, receiver in bankruptcy, etc. A receiver in bankruptcy must enclose documentation.)

© .SE (Stiftelsen för Internetinfrastruktur) 2012-03-28 version 004